

O TASTE, AND YOU WILL SEE

Words by Kathleen Pluth

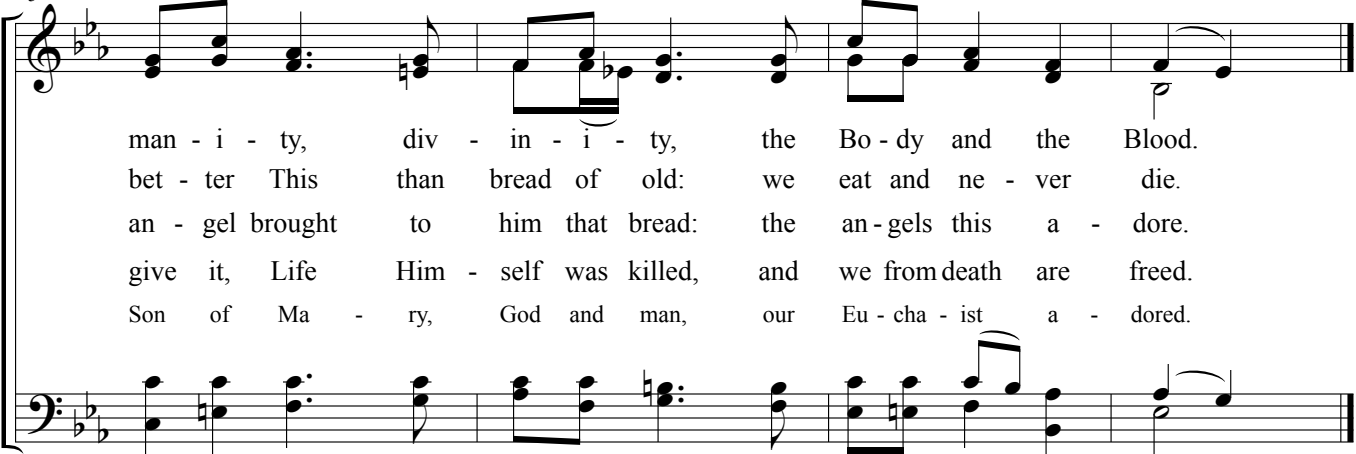

Music by Colin Brumby

$\bullet = 72$

1. O taste, and you will see the good - ness of the Lord: hu -
2. God fed his wand - 'ring fold with man - na from the sky. Much
3. E - li - jah once was fed when he could walk no more. An
4. To those who would be filled, this food is life in - deed. To
5. O wor - thy is the Lamb, our slain and ris - en Lord, the man - i - ty, div - in - i - ty, the Bo - dy and the Blood.

5

bet - ter This than bread of old: we eat and ne - ver die.
an - gel brought to him that bread: the an - gels this a - dore.
give it, Life Him - self was killed, and we from death are freed.
Son of Ma - ry, God and man, our Eu - cha - ist a - dored.