This annual course, founded in 2001, offers musicians a chance to celebrate the Christmas Octave in superb surroundings among like-minded friends. On three days we sing Mass with wonderful music mainly from the Renaissance, there are opportunities for chamber music and Christmas carols from around the world - and there is of course the excellent Alsatian cuisine.

The course begins with supper on Thursday December 28 and ends after breakfast on Tuesday January 2. Those wishing to arrive early or to stay on longer are welcome to do so - the telephone and fax numbers and the email address of Ste Odile will be provided to all participants. We shall spend December 28/29 rehearsing, with no performance. On December 30 and 31 and on January 1 we shall sing at Mass. The final repertoire will depend on the balance of the choir, but a French mass and other festal music are planned.

Mont Ste Odile is a famous pilgrim hotel near Colmar. The original monastery was founded in the 7th century by Odilia, the daughter of the pagan Count Eticho. It was a convent, then a monastery, until the French Revolution. In 1853 the building was bought and presented to the Bishop. It has been fully restored and there is now a full programme of courses and retreats, supervised by a team of priests and nuns. The church includes the 12th century Holy Cross Chapel, and the 8th century sarcophagus containing the relics of St. Odile. More information on www.mont-sainte-odile.fr

On New Year's Eve the hotel offers a splendid Dinner, and afterwards we withdraw to our own celebration. At midnight there are rockets and champagne - if we are lucky there will be snow again. If you would like to join us please complete the attached form and send it by email, fax or post as soon as possible.

I urge you to take out holiday insurance, as the charges for the hotel may not be refundable.

The Ryan flights to Strasbourg have been discontinued, but there are other flights to Strasbourg, or Ryan now flies to Karlsruhe-Baden airport, which is north-east of Strasbourg. The journey from the airport is not difficult: into Baden-Baden, thence by train to Strasbourg, thence to Obernai, from where the taxi costs about 20 €. There is no effective taxi service from Barr station. By train make for Obernai. I can supply directions for those coming by car.
