INTROIT — PSALM 26

ENGLISH PSALM TONE

Hear, O Lord.

The Lord is my light and my salvation ;
whom should I fear ?

The Lord is my life's refuge ;
of whom should I be afraid ?

One thing I ask of the Lord ; / this I seek :
To dwell in the house of the Lord.
That I may gaze on the loveliness of the Lord
and contemplate his temple.

For he will hide me in his abode
in the day of trouble ;
He will conceal me in the shelter of his tent,
he will set me high upon a rock.

Even now my head is held high
above my enemies on ev'ry side.
And I will offer in his tent
sacrifices with shouts of gladness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, / is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Let us pray with con-fi-dence to the Fa- ther in the words our Sa-vior gave us:

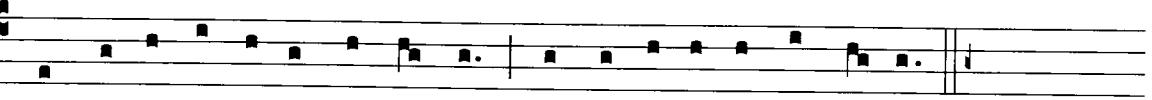

Our Fa-ther, who art in heav-en; hal-low-ed be Thy Name; Thy King-dom come;

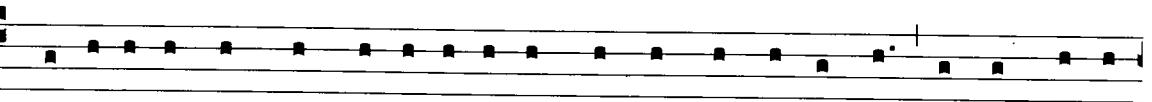

Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heav-en. Give us this day our dai- ly bread,

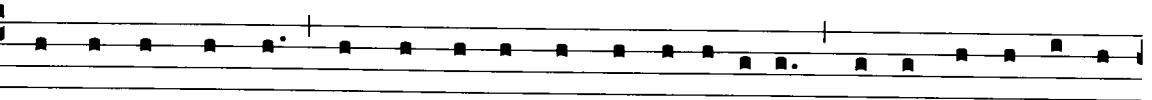

And for-give us our tres-pass-es as we for-give those who tres-pass a-against us,

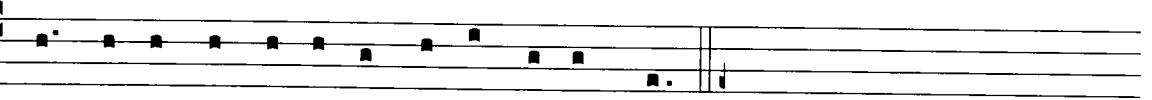

And lead us not in- to temp-ta- tion, but de- liv- er us from e- vil.

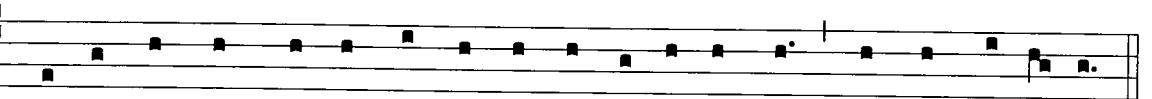

v. De-liv-er us Lord from eve-ry e- vil and grant us peace in our day. In your mer-cy keep us free from sin, and pro-tect us from all anx- i- e- ty, as we wait in joy-ful

Dies irae, translation

Day of wrath, day that will dissolve the world into burning coals,
as David bore witness with the Sibyll.
How great a tremor is to be,
when the judge is to come
briskly shattering every (grave).
A trumpet sounding an astonishing sound
through the tombs of the region
drives all (men) before the throne.
Death will be stunned and (so) will Nature,
when arises (man) the creature
responding to the One judging.
The written book will be brought forth,
in which the whole (record of evidence) is contained whence the world is to be judged.
Therefore when the Judge shall sit,
whatever lay hidden will appear;
nothing unavenged will remain.
O Thou, God of Majesty,
nourishing brilliance of the Trinity,
join us with the Blessed.
What am I the wretch then to say?
what patron I to beseech?
when scarcely the just (man) be secure.
King of tremendous Majesty,
who saves those-to-be-saved free,
save me, Fount of piety.
Remember, faithful Jesus,
because I am the cause of your journey:
do not lose me on that day.
Thou has sat down as one wearied seeking me,
Thou has redeemed (me) having suffered the Cross:
so much labor let it not be lost.
Just judge of the avenging-punishment,
work the gift of the remission (of sins)
before the Day of the Reckoning.
I groan, as the accused:
my face grows red from (my) fault:
spare (this) suppliant, O God.
O Thou, God of Majesty,
nourishing brilliance of the Trinity,
join us with the Blessed.

Thou who forgave Mary [the sinful woman],
and favorably heard the (good) thief,
hast also given me hope.
My prayers are not worthy,
but do Thou, Good (God), deal kindly lest I burn in perennial fire.
Among the sheep offer (me) a place
and from the goats sequester me,
placing (me) at (Thy) right hand.
After the accursed have been silenced,
given up to the bitter flames,
call me with the blest.
Kneeling and bowed down I pray,
My heart contrite as ashes:
Do Thou [, my End,] care for my end.
That sorrowful day,
on which will arise from the buring coals
Man accused to be judged:
therefore, O God, do Thou spare him.
Faithful Lord Jesus,
grant them rest.
Amen.

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and the torment of death shall not touch them: in the sight of the unwise they seemed to die, but they are in peace. 1. And though in the sight of men they suffered torments, their hope is full of immortality. 2. Afflicted in few things, in many they shall be well rewarded: because God hath tried them, and found them worthy of himself. 3. As gold in the furnace he hath proved them, and as a victim of a holocaust he hath received them. 4. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall run to and fro like sparks among the reeds. 5. They shall judge nations, and rule over people, and their Lord shall reign for ever. 6. They that trust in him shall understand the truth: and they that are faithful in love shall rest in him. 7. For grace and peace are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

You, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways. 1. Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people, 2. and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, in the house of David his servant, 3. as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, the prophets from of old; 4. salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us, 5. to show mercy to our forefathers and to be mindful of his holy covenant, 6. of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, that he would grant us, 7. that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, we should serve him without fear, 8. in holiness and justice before him all our days. 9. [You shall] give to his people knowledge of salvation through forgiveness of their sins, 10. because of the loving kindness of our God, wherewith the Orient from on high has visited us, 11. to shine on those who sit in the darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Ut queant laxis, Vespers hymn, St. John the Baptist, by Paul the Deacon, O.S.B. (died 799). Translated by Rev. Adrian Fortescue (1874-1923).

1. That the servants of God with clear voices may sing the wonders of thy life, obtain forgiveness for unworthy lips, O holy John.
2. A messenger, coming from high heaven, told thy father that thou wouldest be born great; he declared thy name and the manner of thy life in order.
3. Thy father, doubting the message from on high, lost the gift of speech; but thou when born didst heal the organs of his voice.
4. Hidden before birth thou knewest the coming of the King; so did both mothers through their sons declare secret things.
5. To the Father be praise, to his only-begotten Son and to the Holy Spirit, equal in might to both, One God for ever.
