Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

Holy God, we praise thy Name ;	Hark ! The loud celestial hymn
Lord of all, we bow before thee ;	Angel choirs above are raising ;
All on earth thy scepter 'claim ;	Cherubim and seraphim,
All in heav'n above adore thee ;	In unceasing chorus praising,
Infinite thy vast domain ;	Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord :
Everlasting is thy reign.	Holy, holy, holy Lord.

PRAYER AFTER THE DIVINE OFFICE

Let every creature give unending praise, honor, power and glory throughout all eternity to the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity, the crucified humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ, the chaste Motherhood of Mary, the ever glorious and blessed Virgin, and to the entire assembly of saints, and may we be granted the forgiveness of our sins.

Blessed is the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary which bore the Son of the Eternal Father. And blessed are the breasts which nursed Christ our Lord.

PRAYER BEFORE THE DIVINE OFFICE

Open my lips, O Lord, to praise your holy Name. Cleanse my heart of any vain, evil, or distracting thoughts. Give light to my mind and fervor to my will; enable me to recite this Office worthily, attentively, and devoutly, so that my prayer will be heard in the presence of your divine Majesty. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, I offer you this Hour with the divine intention you had while on earth offering praises to God.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT. AT SECOND VESPERS

Psalter: Week I

A glimpse into the kingdom of God

Vespers is the evening prayer of the Church. This is the hour of thanksgiving for the graces bestowed during the day of salvation that has just passed. In Sunday Vespers we review gratefully the history of God's kingdom in the Church and in individual souls. We see Christ our victorious King in his power (Ps 109), and the Church in the image of the Jewish people, setting out from the slavery of Egypt into the promised land (Ps 113). There are two principal objects to our Vesper prayers: thanksgiving, and new courage to continue our pilgrimage.

OPENING VERSE

STAND

O God, come to my as-sistance. R. O Lord, make haste to help me. Glo-ry to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spir-it: as it was in the be-gin-nig, is now, and will be for ev-er. A-men. Al-le-lu-ia.

HYMN

Conditor alme siderum. (L.M.)

7th century.

*C 1. Creator of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light,
Jesus, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.*

*A 2. Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
Hast found the med'cine, full of grace,
To save and heal a ruined race.*

*C 3. Thou camest, the Bridegroom of the Bride,
As drew the world to evening tide,
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine.*

*A 4. At whose dread Name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow;
And things celestial thee shall own,
And things terrestrial, Lord alone.*

*C 5. O thou whose coming is with dread,
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below;
From ev'ry insult of the foe.*

*A 6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Laud, honor, might, and glory be
From age to age, eternally.*

Amen.

shout for joy, / daughter of Jerusalem, / alleluia.

Psalm 109

King and Priest

A famous Messianic Psalm. In colorful pictures, the royal psalmist paints the mission, conflict, and triumph of our Savior. We ought to pray this Psalm with sentiments of deepest devotion, homage, adoration; for Christ has applied these words of prophecy to himself.

Christ's reign will last until all his enemies are made subject to him (1 Corinthians 15 : 25)

Appointed King by God

Cantor : The Lord's revelation to my Master : /
" Sit on my right : *
your foes I will put beneath your feet. "

All : The Lord will wield from Sion your scepter of power : *
rule in the midst of all your foes.

ANTIPHON 2

Cantor : Christ our King will come to us : *
the Lamb of God foretold by John.

Psalm 113

The Israelites are delivered from the bondage of Egypt

This Psalm in its simplicity is full of poetry : nature rejoices as it sees God marching by in the Ark of the Covenant. In our prayers, this is God's solemn procession through time in the forward progress of his Church. Christ is in procession, a Corpus Christi procession ; and it is our privilege to march along with him.

You too left Egypt when, at Baptism, you renounced that world which is at enmity with God (Saint Augustine)

God and his people

Cantor : When Israel came forth from Egypt, *
Jacob's sons from an alien people,

All : Judah became the Lord's temple, *
Israel became his kingdom.

Nature's holy fear

Cantor : The sea fled at the sight : *
the Jordan turned back on its course.

All : the mountains leapt like rams *
and the hills like yearling sheep.

Cantor : Why was it, sea, that you fled, *
that you turned back, Jordan, on your course ?

All : Mountains, that you leapt like rams, *
hills, like yearling sheep ?

Cantor : Tremble, O earth, before the Lord, *
in the presence of the God of Jacob,

All : who turns the rock into a pool *
and flint into a spring of water.

Doxology

Cantor : Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit :

CATHEDRAL OF SAINT EUGENE

Diocese of Santa Rosa

2012

*Do not be afraid, Mary,
you have found favor with God ;
you will conceive and give birth to a Son, alleluia.*

Antiphon at Magnificat

STATION AT SAINT MARY MAJOR

At Christmas, Jesus will be born in our hearts, for at that time the anniversary of his birth will be celebrated. He refuses nothing, to the prayer of the Church, his spouse, and thus he will grant to our souls the same graces which he gave the shepherds and the Wise Men.

Christ will come again also, at the end of all time, to “condemn the guilty to the flames, and to call the just with a loving voice to heaven”
Hymn at the Night Office.

The whole of today’s liturgy is a preparation for this double Advent of mercy and justice. Some parts of it can be applied equally to either, while others refer to our Divine Redeemer’s lowly birth, and others again, to his coming in the splendor of his power and majesty. The same welcome will be given to us by our Lord when he comes to judge us, as we give to him now when coming to redeem us. Let us prepare for the Christmas feast by holy prayers and aspirations and by reforming our lives, that we may be ready for that last great judgment upon which depends the fate of our soul for all eternity. And all this with confidence, for all “who wait upon the Lord will never be confounded” Psalm 24.

In former times on this First Sunday of Advent, all the people of Rome made the station at the Basilica of Saint Mary Major, to assist at the solemn Mass which the Pope celebrated, surrounded by his clergy. This particular Church was chosen because it is Mary who gave us Jesus and because relics of the crib in which the Blessed Mother placed her Divine Child are preserved in this Church.
