

PRAYER BEFORE THE DIVINE OFFICE

Open my lips, O Lord, to praise your holy Name. Cleanse my heart of any vain, evil, or distracting thoughts. Give light to my mind and fervor to my will; enable me to recite this Office worthily, attentively, and devoutly, so that my prayer will be heard in the presence of your divine Majesty. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, I offer you this Hour with the divine intention you had while on earth offering praises to God.

PRAYER AFTER THE DIVINE OFFICE

Let every creature give unending praise, honor, power and glory throughout all eternity to the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity, the crucified humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ, the chaste Motherhood of Mary, the ever glorious and blessed Virgin, and to the entire assembly of saints, and may we be granted the forgiveness of our sins.

Blessed is the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary which bore the Son of the Eternal Father. And blessed are the breasts which nursed Christ our Lord.

SUNDAY AT FIRST VESPERS

Psalter: Week II

A glimpse into the kingdom of God

Vespers is the evening prayer of the Church. This is the hour of thanksgiving for the graces bestowed during the day of salvation that has just passed. In Sunday Vespers we review gratefully the history of God's kingdom in the Church and in individual souls. We see Christ our victorious King in his power (Philippians Ct.), and God's care over his chosen ones (Ps 118 & 15). There are two principal objects to our Vesper prayers: thanksgiving, and new courage to continue our pilgrimage during the coming week.

OPENING VERSE

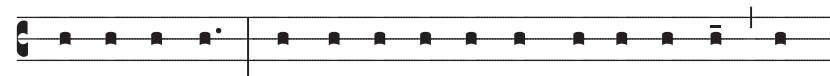

STAND

Celebrant:

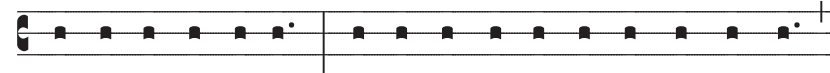

All:

O

God, come to my as-sistance. R. O Lord, make haste to help me. Glo-ry to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spir-it: as it was in the be-gin-ning, is now, and will be for ev-er. A-men. Al-le-lu-ia.

HYMN

From a Gothic Hymnal. Author and century unknown.

Rerum Deus, fons omnium. (L.M.)

*C 1. O God, the Source and Fount of life, Creating all things by your will,
To give us joy you never cease
The earth with wondrous gifts to fill.*

A 2. And when creation was complete, Repose for man you also blest
By resting on the seventh day,
That he might toil again refreshed.

*C 3. To fallen mortals grant the grace
Of sorrow for each sin's offence,
And courage to begin anew
And strive for virtue's recompense.*

C 4. When Christ the Judge supreme appears To sift the present and the past,
May we his servants thrill with joy
And peace to gaze on him at last.

*C 5. O God of mercy, hear our prayer,
A With Christ, your Son, and Spirit blest, Transcendant Trinity in whom Created things all come to rest. Amen.*

Cantor : Your word, O Lord, *
is the lantern to light our way, / alleluia.

Psalm 118

A meditation on God's law

"I am yours, give me salvation," the psalmist prays in Ps 118. At the Vesper hour we recall the day's battle. The strophe from Ps 118 gives the picture of a battle raging back and forth between God and the world. We keep throwing new reserves into the battle, the religious motivations that are meant to keep us faithful.

*This is my commandment :
that you should love one another (John 15:12)*

Fourteenth strophe: In spite of peril I will be true

Cantor : Your word is a lamp for my steps * and a light for my path.

All : I have sworn and have made up my mind * to obey your decrees.

Cantor : Lord, I am deeply afflicted : *
by your word give me life.

All : Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips *
and teach me your decrees.

Cantor : Though I carry my life in my hands, *
I remember your law.

All : Though the wicked try to ensnare me *
I do not stray from your precepts.

Cantor : Your will is my heritage for ever, *
the joy of my heart.

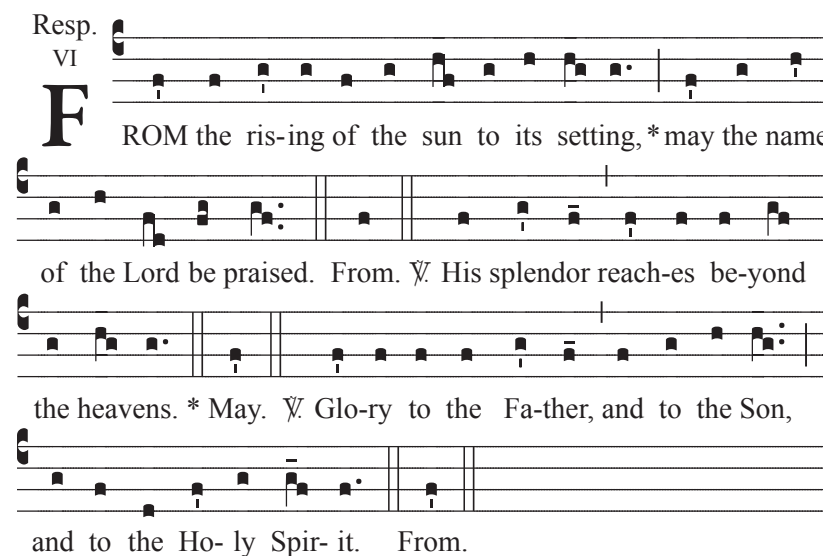

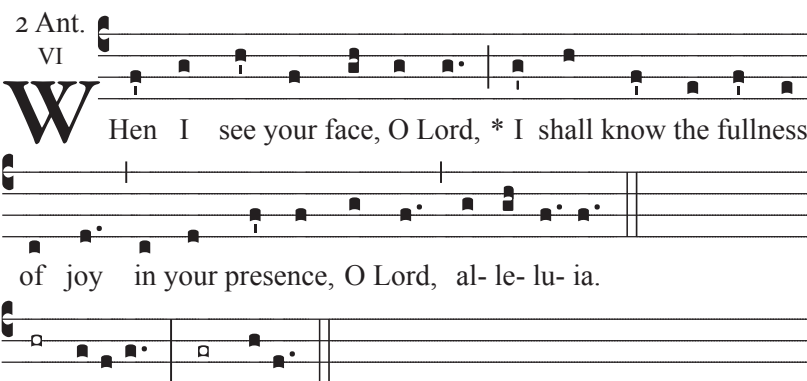

All : I set myself to carry out your will * in fullness, for ever.

Doxology

Cantor : Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit :

All : as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Cantor : Your word, O Lord, *
is the lantern to light our way, / alleluia.

Antiphons In Cantu for cantor, schola or choir

Y Our word, O Lord, * is the lantern to light my way, alle- lu- ia. Psalm 118

ANTIPHON 2

Cantor : When I see your face, O Lord, *
I shall know the fullness of joy, / alleluia.

Psalm 15

The Lord himself is my portion

In this psalm we give thanks for the gift of faith and of grace. Other men may have kingdoms, but we possess God, the highest good. It is he who has given me my blessed calling. He will not suffer his holy one to see corruption: this beautiful Messianic verse foretelling the Resurrection of Christ may well be applied to our own hope in the resurrection of the body.

The Father raised up Jesus, freeing him from the grip of death (Acts 2 : 24)

My God and my all!

Cantor : Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you. /
I say to the Lord : / “ You are my God. *
My happiness lies in you alone.”

All : He has put into my heart a marvelous love * for the faithful ones who dwell in his land.

Cantor : Those who choose other gods increase their sorrows. /
Never will I offer their offerings of blood. *
Never will I take their name upon my lips.

The Lord is my portion

All : O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; *
it is you yourself who are my prize.

Cantor : The lot marked out for me is my delight: *
welcome indeed the heritage that falls to me!

All : I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel, * who even at night directs my heart.

Cantor : I keep the Lord ever in my sight: *
since he is at my right hand, / I shall stand firm.

Blessed resurrection in God

All : And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; *
even my body shall rest in safety.

Cantor : For you will not leave my soul among the dead, *
nor let your beloved know decay.

All : You will show me the path of life, /
the fullness of joy in your presence, * at your right hand happiness for ever.

Doxology

Cantor : Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit :

All : as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Cantor : When I see your face, O Lord, *
I shall know the fullness of joy, / alleluia.

ANTIPHON 3

Cantor : Let everthing in heaven and on earth *
bend the knee at the name of Jesus.

Canticle

Philippians 2:6-11

Christ, God's holy servant

Cantor : Though he was in the form of God, /
Jesus did not deem equality with God * something to be grasped at.

All : Rather, he emptied himself / and took the form of a slave, * being born in the likeness of men.

Cantor : He was known to be of human estate, *
and it was thus that he humbled himself

All : obediently accepting even death, *
death on a cross !

Cantor : Because of this, / God highly exalted him * and bestowed on him the name / above every other name,

his children for ev- er.

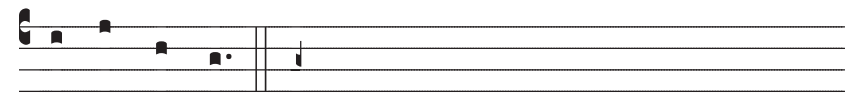

10. Glo- ry to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, * and to the

Ho- ly Spir- it :

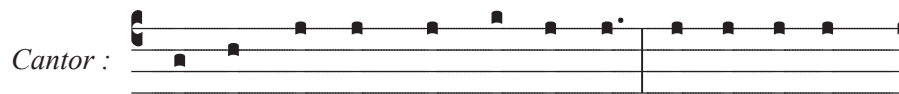

11. as it was in the be- gin-ning, is now * and will be for ev- er. A- men. The antiphon is repeated by the Cantor.

5. He has shown the strength of his arm, * he has scattered the proud in their con-ceit.

6. He has cast down the might-y from their thrones, * and has lift-ed up the low-ly.

7. He has filled the hun-gry with good things, * and the rich he has sent a-way emp-ty.

8. He has come to the help of his ser-vant, Is- ra- el * for he has re-mem-bered his promise of mer- cy,

9. the prom-ise he made to our fa-thers, * to A-bra-ham and

All : So that at Jesus' name / every knee must bend *
in the heavens, on the earth, and under the earth,

Cantor : and every tongue proclaim / to the glory of God the Father : *
JESUS CHRIST IS LORD !

All : Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit :

Cantor : as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Cantor : Let everthing in heaven and on earth *
bend the knee at the name of Jesus.

READING

Collosians 1 : 2-6

May God our Father give you grace and peace. We always give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, in our prayers for you because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love you bear toward all the saints — moved as you are by the hope held in store for you in heaven. You heard of this hope through the message of truth, the gospel, which has come to you, has borne fruit, and has continued to grow in your midst, as it has everywhere in the world.
